All our Norwegian courses follow the school calendar for Stavanger municipality. We start new courses 4 times a year.

Term 1: August

Term 2: October / November

Term 3: January

Term 4: April

We have registration all year around and have waiting lists for future courses. You will receive a notification by SMS when we have an open spot in a class to offer you.

Who can get a spot in a Norwegian course at Johannes Læringssenter?

All adults can register for Norwegian courses. In periods with high demand, applicants entitled to free courses are given priority.

Information on the right to free courses

You can apply for free Norwegian courses if you are registered in Stavanger and have a determination of legal residence based one of the following reasons:

- as a refugee
- in a family with a refugee
- in a family with a Norwegian/Nordic citizen residing in Stavanger
- in a family with a person who holds a permanent residence permit

There is a time limit for how long you are entitled to free Norwegian courses. It is, therefore, important to register for a Norwegian course as soon as possible.

If you are expecting a child or are ill, you may be entitled to a time extension, which postpones your deadline.

Who must pay for Norwegian courses?

You usually must pay for a Norwegian course if you:

- come from the EU or EEU area.
- have a residence permit in a country within EU or EEU.
- are in Norway as a family member with a person from a country in these areas.
- are a Norwegian citizen.
- have lived in Norway for many years.

We offer Norwegian classes during the day, in the evening and individually online learning. All courses have a duration of approximately 10 weeks.

Our courses are arranged at different locations in Stavanger.
